MARC HEIJNEN SOPACUWA
“SLOW”

The small livingroom stage presents “Slow” played by the dutch clown and street-artist Marc Heijnen Sopacuwa.

An old man waits for visitors in his living room. Maybe someone will come over spontaneously or call...? Slowly, without words and with a lot of playfulness, he entertainingly invites the audience to linger.

Duration: 30 minutes

MARKUS SIEBERT “CISUM”

The small living room stage presents “cisum” – a funny solo by Markus Siebert “Knäcke”.

A musician at home. Everyday life becomes noise, then rhythm, finally a melody...which disappears back into everyday life. cisum is the search for the origin of music in everyday sounds and a resonant living room.

Duration: between 30 and 90 minutes
